These four models for stout men

These four models are for stout men. Macy's suits for stout men are not ordinary suits made in extra large sizes, but are suits designed after repeated consultations between our own expert and the best suit manufacturers in the country with the object of obtaining a model that gives a slim effect. The suits are designed to lie close to the body, and they very much reduce apparent breadth.

Our suits for stout men are not confined to the usual dark blue. Dark blue has been the only color that the stout man who bought his clothes at the ordinary clothing store has hitherto been able to wear. We, on the contrary, have suits for stout men in dozens of quiet patterns, including grays and tans in the newest weaves.

The same holds true with the models. We offer conservative regulation American models, the semi-English soft impressed lapel model and the extreme English model with marked waistline and narrow shoulder in these suits as we do in our suits for men of average build.

These four models for slim, tall men

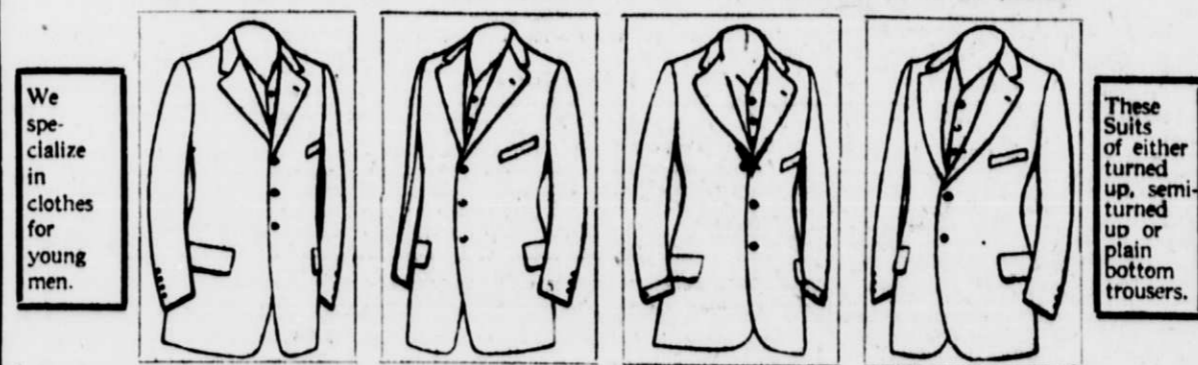

These four models are for slim, tall men. Our suits for men of unusual height, although they comprise a variety of patterns, are chiefly in very quiet effects, the patterns being such as to reduce the apparent effect of height. Semi-invisible checks and patterns of this character rather than pronounced stripes which tend to increase the apparent height. They give the broadening effect of the old-fashioned check without being in any way conspicuous.

We offer in these suits, in different models to suit the different tastes, including semi-English, as well as a conservative conventional American model.

Our suits for men of over average height are built with extra long sleeves, extra long trousers and extra long skirts on the coat. It is, therefore, not necessary to buy an unduly large chest measure in order to get adequately long sleeves, etc. We can fit the unusually tall man as well as we can fit the man of average build.

Our suits for young men are actually young men's suits, and not the ordinary suits for men in smaller sizes. The patterns are jaunty and the cut a trifle more extreme than the suits for older men. We show below four of our most popular models. Macy caters especially to the young men. Our selection in models for the young man is as complete as the average clothing store selection for any man. Four complete different models to choose from, each with a different lapel shape. Every man can find lapel shapes that will best frame his face. These four models for youths and men of youthful build.

Ages from 15 to 20 Sizes from 31 to 36 Prices from $9.75 to $22.50

We specialize in clothes for young men.

These suits of either turned up, semi-turned up or plain bottom trousers.

Spring Importations of Paris Gowns

Which were displayed during the Exhibition held here last week

Have now been copied at materially lessened prices

The woman who desires above all things a French Gown or Costume for Easter, but finds the cost of the originals prohibitive, can have it. No one will know it is not an original unless she chooses to tell.

We have duplicated these superb creations accurately. There are no appreciable points of difference. Even the buttons are exact duplicates.

There are many women, however, who count the possession of an original imported model more important than its price. And they will be interested to know that our originals are marked at about half the price that other importers charge. We feel that a liberal concession is only fair after the Paris model has been copied by us.

Just one instance of our prices will show the enormous difference we save you. An original black and royal blue satin gown from Callot Soeurs, which we have marked $245.00, is priced $122.50 at a nearby establishment.

Russian Suits, by Paul Poiret
Original $175.00
Copy $48.74

The color combination, the daring design, withal the elegance of this model, proclaim M. Paul Poiret's master mind.

The material is a very dark blue French serge, trimmed with copper color Faillie Francaise silk, and lined to match.

The coat is Russian style, double-breasted and slightly cutaway. It is bordered all round with a half-inch band of the copper silk, fastens with a double row of brass ball buttons, and gathers under a wide, patent leather belt with brass clasp.

The skirt hangs straight, from a raised belt of copper and blue, which loops at the back to conceal gathers. A wide band of the copper silk trims hem.

ORIENTAL RUGS

A Sale of Turkish Rugs at Half Price is now in progress

Some unusually fine Persian Rugs from the ancient city of Tabriz, in the province of Azerbaijan, at less than such rugs usually cost to import.

When you buy Oriental Rugs at Macy's you buy from a store having a bureau in Constantinople at the head of which is a native with a lifetime experience in the buying of Oriental Rugs.

When you buy Oriental Rugs from Macy's you buy from a store with a 55-year-old under-selling policy.

These two conditions in combination explain the difference between Macy's prices for selected Oriental Rugs and higher prices elsewhere, often for varieties which we should feel bound to reject.

We took from our stock a number of the finest specimens and reduced them to prices which are less than what one usually has to pay for very inferior grades.

The carpets are the best of their kind, being strictly all wool and vegetable dyed, thus insuring lasting color. These Rugs must not be confused with India Rugs, as those are inferior both in grade and color.

While the price is an inducement, the real attraction is the quality, especially to customers who understand the difference between ordinary "Oriental Rugs" and selected specimens such as these. The lines included are:—

Hamidihs (designs chiefly in library effects)—rich, bold colors in red, blue and green.

Egherdies (designs are chiefly suitable for living rooms)—plain grounds, mostly with medallion in centre.

Gulistans (designs particularly advisable for dining rooms)—solid reds and greens with medallion or typical Turkish characters.

Antique Oriental Rugs
Mossouls, Feraghans, Serabands. A New Shipment.

We have divided these rugs into six lots, more according to quality than to size; in each lot there is a large selection both in sizes and designs.

You will find these lots separately classified in the department and marked at prices which represent the saving of 20% as compared with lowest prices elsewhere.

Lot No. 1, $11.74 Lot No. 2, $12.49 Lot No. 3, $14.94 Lot No. 4, $17.74 Lot No. 5, $19.94 Lot No. 6, $24.74

Genuine Kirmanshah Carpets

taken from our stock and reduced to about cost.

These Kirmanshah carpets depict all the beautiful effects of the sunset for which the weave is renowned.

These lamps come in different heights, suitable for floor or table, and are either for oil or electric light. The effect of the cretonne over light is indescribably beautiful.

Our willow pedestals for flower pots or urns are also in large varieties. Any of this furniture will be stained as desired. Can be stained in almost any color and the cost is very slight.

We make a specialty of arranging interior room furnishings in willow or reed, and will submit photos or drawings of reed furniture designed especially for you. No charge for this service.

SPRING BED LINENS

We call attention to our first-quality pure linen sheets and pillow cases, of imported and domestic weaves.

We import our linen sheets and pillow cases from Ireland, Belgium and Germany. The German linen is a heavy fabric flax not as soft as the Irish and Flemish qualities but preferred by many.

For the German sheet our lowest-in-the-city price is $2.49, and for the Irish or Flemish linen sheets $3.49.

We also carry a complete line of cotton bed coverings, including our own "Pride of Broadway" full bleached sheets and pillow cases made to our order from a fine, strong cotton, and our "Red Star" Special, which is a somewhat heavier quality.

We feature also "Fruit of the Loom," the superior quality by which all cotton sheeting is compared:
